

THOUGHTS OF A BACHELOR.

Reflections of a Cynic Who Thinks He Knows About Women and Men.

Most men believe in ghosts; lots of them live with them.

When a woman has a child that's bad, she says he is mischievous.

The man who chooses his wife for the way she looks on the street is not the worst kind of fool.

The best thing in electricity is that it will make women quit complaining of how the gas kills their plants.

An engagement ring is one a girl puts on her finger so as to show off before the other girls. A wedding ring is one a woman puts on to remember something by and then forgets what it was.

Praying for a husband doesn't take the place of watching him.

Men who think they know too much to get married generally don't know enough. Some women don't dress for their husbands for fear they might not feel at home.

Men would have more respect for babies if they believed they really understood the language women talk to them.

Tailor made gowns may have lots of style about them, but the average man likes the woman best who wears something soft and fuzzy around her neck.

When you hear a girl talk about her boudoir, she has generally rigged up a corner of her bedroom with some sofa cushions and a Japanese lantern.

Married women and bachelors waste a lot of good time feeling sorry for each other.

There never was a homely old maid who would admit that no man ever kissed her.

A good many men who wear nightshirts always speak of their pajamas because they think it sounds swell.

Most men's ideal of wealth is to be able to have a separate pair of suspenders for every pair of trousers they have.

When a girl tells you how nice another girl thinks you are, you can tell just how much she thinks of you herself by the way she says it.

The first month a man is married he says "my wife" every ten minutes. After he has been married five years nobody would ever know he had a wife.—New York Press.

At the Parting of the Ways.

A favorite little golf story comes from Scotland.

"I shall have to give it up," remorsefully remarked the Scotch minister who had no language when his ball lay buried in a bunker.

"What, golf?" asked his friend and confidant.

"No," returned the other, "the minister," in Boston Transcript.

In Bulgaria the proprietors of a medicine, by which they claim to cure a specified disease, are liable to imprisonment if the medicine fails to produce the desired effect.

WHARF AND WAVE.

Of the 23 foreign vessels now in port 15 are American, 4 British, 3 German and 1 Hawaiian.

Mr. C. L. Wight's object in going to Maui is to examine into the working of the wire rope at Oahu used to load sugar and discharge freight from Honolulu.

Bets are 3 to 1 along the water front that George Beckley will bring the Helene into port during the daytime, so as to be able to show off that flag everyone has been talking about.

The bark Velocity, owned by the late Captain Martin, was sold in Hong Kong recently for the sum of $9,000 (Mexican) to Nells Muller of Shanghai. She will coast west to Manila, Singapore and other ports for logs and teakwood.

The British schooner Allan A left the Sound for Kahului and Mahukona on or about February 15th. She has a deck-load for the former place. The cargo in the hold is for Mahukona. At this place she will load sugar for San Francisco.

The long expected Norwegian bark Fantasi, C. Anderson master, arrived in port yesterday morning, 78 days from Newcastle with a cargo of 1789 tons of coal to order. She cleared Newcastle on Dec. 5th, 1896, and sailed on the 8th, arriving as stated above.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Feb. 11.—It is learned from a reliable source that the make-up of the Bering Sea fleet this year will be radically different from any previous year, the authorities appreciating the ridiculousness of the joint patrol between this country and Great Britain, in which the major part of the work falls on the shoulders of Uncle Sam.

The American barkentine S. N. Castle, Hubbard master, arrived in port at about 11 a. m. yesterday, 11½ days from San Francisco. She experienced fine weather all the way. The wind was not strong, but very steady, sending the smart vessel along at a good rate. Her greatest distance for one day was 215 miles. The Castle brought a cargo of 700 tons general merchandise, consigned to W. G. Irwin & Co.

The overdue O. R. & N. S. S. Chittagong, Corfield master, arrived yesterday morning, 13½ days from Victoria, with one cabin passenger and 600 tons of freight for this port. Very bad weather was experienced during the first part of the trip. This is the first voyage of Capt. R. Corfield, an efficient man in his line, and one who is thoroughly acquainted with his vessel, having served as first and second officer on her. The Chittagong will sail during the day.

The American barkentine Geo. C. Perkins has completed the work of discharging her 500 tons of coal for the Wilder Steamship Company. She will sail for Mahukona on Friday or Saturday where she will discharge the remaining 200 tons of her cargo of coal and take on sugar for San Francisco.

The Commercial Publishing Company of California street has issued a list of vessels of all descriptions owned on the Pacific Coast. As a guide to all interested in shipping matters the work should prove of value, as its scope covers a greater field than that of the official list issued by the United States Treasury Department.

The Wheeling and Marietta, the new United States gunboats building at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, are nearly ready for launching. The sheathing is in place. A notification of 10 days will be given to the Secretary of the Navy prior to the date of their launch, in order to permit a deputation of citizens from Wheeling, W. Va., to be present at the ceremony. The Wheeling townsfolk have subscribed to present the gunboat bearing their city's name with a porcelain dinner service for the wardroom use.

The R. M. S. Miowera, Chas. W. Hay commander, arrived early yesterday morning. Left Sydney 6:20 p. m. of the 14th; passed Hunter Island midnight of 14th, arriving in Suva 10 a. m. of 16th; left Suva same date at 2:25 p. m. and cleared Fiji group at 4 a. m. next morning. Experienced light northeast winds to the equator, when the full force of the northeast trades were encountered, these trades increasing to a fresh gale, which continued till noon of the 24th, necessitating the ship being kept at a reduced speed, a very light sea being the feature of this unusually enjoyable run. The admirable sea-going qualities of the ship prevented any damage being done. The Miowera brings a light passenger list, this being the slack trip of the year. Passenger traffic from the Colonies, though, commences in March. The only passenger for Honolulu is Mr. Tibbs, who is returning after a trip to England.
